

Performant Announces Management Change

October 9, 2018

LIVERMORE, Calif., Oct. 09, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Performant Financial Corporation (Nasdaq:PFMT), a provider of technology-enabled recovery and related analytics services, today announced that Jeff Haughton has resigned as President and COO of Performant to return to the investment banking business.

"We want to thank Jeff for his leadership and contributions during the four years he was with us, and we wish Jeff well in his future endeavors," stated Lisa Im, Chief Executive Officer of Performant. "Currently, we have no plans to replace the President or Chief Operating Officer role; rather, we have chosen to reorganize our existing team of strong and dedicated leaders. We believe our revised structure will best align with our business objectives and the functions required to support our goals."
